

January 23rd, 1989

Mrs. William Gillespie

NEW SMYRNA BEACH, Fl 32069

Your letter of January 10th arrived yesterday what showed that the international mail is wrongly managed.

Thank you very much for your letter which calms my conscience and makes me happy.

Included the copy and translation of my letter to Professor Rasico and the copy of my letter to X.L. Pellicer. Please keep in mind that I would like to have copies returned to me when I am in Florida next March.

I intend to be in Florida the first days of March coming from Nepal, Korea, Taiwan, Guam and Los Angeles.

As you do, I hope we will find an arrangement and the only thing I wish is not to hurt our good friend X.L. Pellicer in any way.

I am afraid Professor Rasico could react in a special way.

Wish you and Bill a very Happy 1989!
