Dearest Andrea,

After your wonderful Happy Birthday card and your long writing, I have been waiting for you during the Christmas season, but you did not appear.

In your letter, you repeat what you said in another previous letter. You say I am longing to see you. My reply is very simple: Take a plan and come to see me!

Now, I am away from Menorca for a trip around the world but I will be back on the 25th of March and then, I will stay in Mongofre the whole month of April and May.

Cicero wrote "FACTA NON VERBA". and that is what I am going to tell you and repeat again and again until I succeed in having you in Mongofre.

Million kisses from your grandfather.
