Dear Sirs:

On March 30th 1993, we at David Orgell sent out the Casa Blanca chinaware that you purchased from us on February 16th, United Parcel Service (UPS) returned to us yesterday April 12 1993.

They said it was not possible to deliver the packages with out a phone number, since they are saying that this is a P.O.Box address and the only way to contact you is over the phone.

Unfortunately, we do not have a phone number in your customer file. Please answer as soon as possible so you can get your merchandise right away. United Parcel Service will not accept it with out a complete information.

Thank you for taking care of this matter. Your prompt response to this letter is very much appreciated.

Yours truly,

Sandra Velado
