

Barcelona, the 29th April 1977

Mr. Guy Puckle,
"Alexandra Palace"
Av. Maréchal Juin,
06400 Cannes.

I was so happy with both your letters, the one you sent to Menorca and the one you sent to Mexico that I am looking ahead with the pleasure of seeing you soon in Cannes. I do not know the date yet, but it will be beginning of June or end of July.

I shall be open to all kinds of arguments or conversations, but not ready to make any kind of business because I am too old for that. May be my children, or my grandchildren or my great grandchildren.

As soon as I am in Port Cantó I shall phone you.
