Dear Guy,

Again I try to remind you that your Company owes me a lot of money.

I am an old man and I remember quite often the many times you said to me that the money you owe me should be very important in my old age. Yourrepete, time and again, The money has not come and I am a very old boy.

Please find a solution for that very ugly business. You have our Andromaco products in the market and I don't have the money.

I heard through Ambassador Carlos Fernandez Shaw that Thérèse Yturalde is dead too. Please present my "Condoléances" to your wife Renée.

Hoping to hear from you,

I remain yours truly,

Fernando A. Rubió
