Dear Fernando -

I have only just realized that I am no longer in Menorca at Mongofre Non. This peculiar awakening to reality comes with the completion of the film. Until now, I have shared my days with perpetual images of Mongofre - of you, your wife and family, Luis, Roman, hills, beaches and the gentle light of Menorca. Day after day, I have seen the same images and heard the same voices - as if stuck in a moment of space and time, endlessly resurrecting itself as I cut and polished, moulded and tatted to make the mass of film into a form of film.

Now that it is complete, I can write to thank you for your generosity and hospitality towards both myself and the film crew. My only regret is that I could not stay longer to make a film about you - since it is quite clear that your career as "Elizabeth Taylor", as you called yourself, has only just begun and deserves more close-ups and attention than perhaps you achieved in this film.

I was sorry to hear about your illness, but hope you have recovered fully by now.

Please excuse this unpardonable act of bad manners in writing so late to thank you; but I shall certainly retain very special memories of my brief but invigorating stay in Menorca.

My Best Wishes to both you and your wife,

Yours Sincerely,

Laurence Boulting.
